

Cheers To A Late Night

This Time Next Year

Let's take the longest way home?
So I can listen to the Words that let me know;
I'm not working well under pressure;
May take a few shots to make things better
And now it's three am
"let's walk to the corner and back" she said
And I swear it's true,
That there were other things I knew,
When I was thinking a substitute,
That was the wrong idea that was
The worst idea for you.

You said it never would end up like this
Then again I never said
Anything

On those long three flights to the top of the stairs,
A goodnight kiss? it wasn't there
And it rained
From the way back down to half way home
I turned around because you called for me

When I picked up the phone
The first thing that was said
"Just drive down here, I can't get you out of my head"
And this whole time I thought you meant
I was stuck in your heart (I was stuck in your heart)
As well as your

I'm just a coward and you're just a liar at heart
Heres to missing a chance
Not even speaking too late
Not saying anything that would make a start
I've spent a lifetime
Waiting for the right time
There is no better time than here right now
This is all I have to say
Just one time
There is no better time than here right no
