

Modern Day Love Story

This Time Next Year

I'm going to say what I want to say,
I'm over the misery you put me through,
I'm not melodramatic,
I'm no one's bad habit,
I'm not your fool.

Sad to say I'm out of luck,
Sad to say you walked out on us,
Sad to say some people never change but that's ok cause I..

I wear black out every night to blend in the night life that's watching me,
and I'm done,
yes, I am giving up on peeking your former love,
I'm not your tool.

Sad to say I'm out of luck,
Sad to say you walked out on us,
Sad to say some people never change but that's ok cause I..
(Cause I feel sorry for you)

It's one thing just to be sad, or let this get so out of hand,
but don't act like I do.
It's fine by me to be mad, or fuck because you never had,
somebody who loved you.

I'm going to say what I want to say
I'm over the misery you put me through

Sad to say I'm out of luck,
Sad to say you walked out on us,
Sad to say some people never change but that's ok cause I..
(I feel sorry for you)
Sad to say I'm out of luck,
Sad to say you walked out on us,
So sad to say some people never change but that's ok, that's ok!
