

I Am a Very Rude Person

Thom Yorke

I have to find my way in the dark
I have to take a knife to your heart
I have to find some way to escape
I have to walk but I wanna stay

I have to find my way to escape
I have to destroy to create
I have to be rude to your face
I'm breaking up your turntables
Now I'm gonna let your party die
