

For You

Thomas Anders

Everything I want, youre number one,
Youre there and then I want to run,
I want you all the time.

And every- everyone once was a some
I dont want living beyond, you know, youre holding to me.

But for so, please come to me. Nothing else I need, its real,
I only want to take it up to your pure heart.
Could I watch how youre going?
I cant stand today from keep on flowing
To the one I love

In everything, in everyone,
In every change, in every song
Are feelings that remind me just of you
For you
It seems to be a miracle
I say, I say
For you
Its getting to be wonderful

Looking far beyond changes is gone
Bring it to an end, the lover will come
I want you all the time.

In every- everyone love kills the goal
I dont know what youve done
The souls get closer, I see

No lie just keep on going
The whole sense will stay, whatever's growing,
Im feeling so alive
Watch, I came falling
And new chance we play
Forever holding
To the one I love

In everything, in everyone,
In every change, in every song
Are feelings that remind me just of you
For you
It seems to be a miracle
I say, I say
For you
Its getting to be wonderful
For you

I know a secret, secret goal all what you need
For you
Im calling, calling, for its going, going to be really

I know, everyone has somebody to send a love
Ongoing, all-showing, heart-glowing, wide-growing
I know, everyone has somebody, the only one
Ongoing, everyone has somebody to send a love

For you
It seems to be a miracle
I say, I say
For you
For you

Ill show how to love
You cant get enough
Im watching how were going
Im watching to your soul;
Ill show how to love
Im watching to your soul;

In everything, in everyone, In every change, in every song
Are feelings that remind me just of you
For you
It seems to be a miracle
I say, I say
For you
