

Maria

Thomas Anders

Got your message on my mailbox,
Don't know the words that you say.
And I've never seen that area code,
You must be from far away.

As I press the replay button,
To hear your sweet words again,
You speakin' to me in Russian,
Girl I wish, I'd know your name.

Maria, will I ever see your face?
Maria, lost without a trace.

Seven, nine, eight, six, one, hyphen, four, three, double nine,
Girl, I need you in my life,
How I wish it could be mine.

Sounds like you've begging for devotion,
like you need someone to love.
Now you wake up my emotions,
You are the only one I'm thinking of.

Your voice in my head is like music,
And it's my favourite melody,
I take the next flight to Moscow,
To follow my destiny.

Maria, will I ever see your face?
Maria, lost without a trace.

Seven, nine, eight, six, one, hyphen, four, three, double nine,
Girl, I need you in my life,
How I wish it could be mine.

You are my shooting star,
Falling from the sky.
I can see who you are,
when I close my eyes.

Try'na call you back so many times,
You don't pick up the phone.
Now I sing this song to make you mine,
Can you hear me?

Maria, will I ever see your face?
Maria, lost without a trace.

Seven, nine, eight, six, one, hyphen, four, three, double nine,
Girl, I need you in my life,
How I wish it could be mine.

Maria, will I ever see your face?
Maria, lost without a trace.
