

Maybe I'm Dreaming

Thomas Anders

(We were made for love)
(Oh yeah)

Waves of emotion - I can feel them inside
I see devotion - see your heart open wide
Love and heartache are like sister and brother
They aren't far away, babe, oh, they're so close to each other
Here, in this moment, here, by your side
I don't wanna think about goodbyes

Maybe I'm dreaming
My heart is deceiving my mind
(We were made for love)
Maybe I'm dreaming
Nothing will stop us at start
All this time

Love and heartache are like sister and brother
(Sister and brother)
They're not far away, babe,
Oh, they're so close to each other
Here, in this moment, lost in your eyes
I don't wanna think about goodbyes

Maybe I'm dreaming
My heart is deceiving my mind
(We were made for love)
Maybe I'm dreaming
Nothing will stop us at start
All this time
