

Midnight

Thomas Anders

Midnight
Under the moonlight
You're sayin' with your eyes
What I've always known
Midnight
Wherever you wander
The star that you follow
Is guiding you home

Two hearts
Wishing on one star
Dreaming together
Forevermore

Midnight
Here in the darkness
Just bein' quiet
And holding you close
Lover
The more we discover
About one another
The deeper it goes

Midnight
How far does love go
No one can answer
Nobody knows

As the sand falls through the glass
As the years come to pass
I will promise you this
That I seal with a kiss
What you give, I will receive
What you say, I'll believe
I will love more than fear
I will always be here

Midnight
The feelings were so right
We kissed for the first time
That moment I knew

Magic
The sound of the music
It was so perfect
A dream coming true

Midnight
Wherever you wander
The star that you follow
Will guide you to me

Midnight
Lying beside you
Finally knowing
What life is for

Midnight
Touching you softly
I'm feeling the more light
Then ever before

Midnight
Wherever you wander
The star that you follow
Will guide you to me
