

Playing With Dynamite

Thomas Anders

One step ahead of you
Can't hurt me anymore
I've closed the book on you like before
I am emotionless
I'm almost cold as ice
You broke my heart again - broke it twice
First time I believed in you
Thought your apologies were true

Was playing with dynamite
Never knew what you're going to do
Was living in danger
You said what was wrong or right
And the only one perfect was you
I don't need the thrill
Was playing with dynamite

Now I am free to go
Where my feet carry me
Nothing is gonna stop me now you'll see
My life is easy now
No walls to fence me in
I can't believe myself what fool I've been
All those years I've paid my dues
For much too long I've sung the blues

Was playing with dynamite
Never knew what you're going to do
Was living in danger
You said what was wrong or right
And the only one perfect was you
I don't need the thrill
Was playing with dynamite
Never knew what you're going to do
Was living in danger
You said what was wrong or right
And the only one perfect was you
I don't need the thrill
Was playing with

Was playing with dynamite (dynamite)
You said what was wrong or right (yeah, yeah)
Was playing with dynamite (dynamite)
You said (what was wrong or right)

Was playing with dynamite
Never knew what you're going to do
Was living in danger
You said what was wrong or right
And the only one perfect was you
I don't need the thrill
