

Road To Higher Love

Thomas Anders

Is there a road to higher love?
Can't all be wrong what we are dreaming of?

She awakes alone
He's not coming home
She reminds herself, tries to be strong
Goes about her day
In a silent way
But the smell of his skin in the room lingers on
And she knows it is time to move on
But she hasn't changed sheets
Since he's gone

Is there a road to higher love?
Can't all be wrong what we are dreaming of?
All in good time
I believe it will show
Only your hearts know
Is there a road to higher love?
Can't all be wrong what we are dreaming of?
All in good time
I believe it will show
Only our hearts know which way to go

And she misses him
Forgot how long it's been
Sets the table for him every night
When she talks to him
In a picture frame
Getting angry sometimes
He can't always be right
And she stopped seeing most of their friends
They don't understand
Why this love never ends

Is there a road to higher love
Can't all be wrong what we're dreaming of
When everthing fails
Honesty prevails
Keeps the world turning
What is the meaning of it all
Why doesn't anyone hear her call
All in good time
I believe it will show
Only our hearts know which way to go

She dances with her unsung hero
And keeps the memory alive
