

Stay With Me

Thomas Anders

Do you, do you, do you
Wanna be mine,
My southern girl?
Do you, do you, do you
Wanna be my illusion?
I don't wanna be another man for you
To be pretending
I'm the only man who needs to say
The one, who must surrender

If you want to, then
Stay with me, stay with me
I need you only
If you need me then
Stay with me, stay with me
Don't leave me lonely

Do you wanna be mine
Tonight, tonight, tonight
Without pretending?
If you wanna, they say
Good-bye, good-bye, good-bye
And I'll surrender

Do you, do you, do you
Wanna be mine,
My tender girl?
Do you, do you, do you
Wanna be my solution?
I don't wanna be another man for you
To be pretending
I'm the only man why needs to say
The one who must surrender

If you want to, then
Stay with me, stay with me
I need you only
If you need me then
Stay with me, stay with me
Don't leave me lonely

I wish I could be in your eyes
The great pretender
I wish I could be in you life
Without surrender
Our future tortures me again
Like no tomorrow
I wish we could just understand
To end this sorrow
