

Whispers Of Love

Thomas Anders

Waking up at night and I feel alone
And I realize that you are gone
And reality is hard for me
Without you here
And I see your pillow, that's white and cold
There's no one to touch, no one to hold
The night just seems so long
Baby, since you're gone
I was so blind, I didn't see
You are so young and you want to be free
You didn't hear my whispers of love

Whispers of love
(Whispers of love)
Can you hear me?
Hear my whispers of love

I get up and I turn the music on
And I ask myself where did I go wrong
And the memory of you and me is everywhere
And this empty room just feels so cold
There's someone to touch, someone to hold
The night just seems so long
Baby, since you're gone
I was so blind, I didn't see
You are so young and you want to be free
You didn't hear my whispers of love

Whispers of love
(Whispers of love)
Can you hear me?
Hear my whispers of love
