

You Will Be Mine

Thomas Anders

You make me feel alive,
Now you are in my life,
I want you by my side,
I know in time

Oh I've died eight times and this is it,
You're my last chance, babe, that I will get.
I know in time you will be mine.
Oh I know I've got a lot this day,
But I know I can't let you escape.
I know in time you will be mine.

Sometimes my feelings are not quite right,
Please come and help me in my fight,
My fight for life.
So bright your smile even gives me life,
Giving me emotions that I like,
Please make it right.

Oh I've died eight times and this is it,
You're my last chance, babe, that I will get.
I know in time you will be mine.
Oh I know I've got a lot this day,
But I know I can't let you escape.
I know in time you will be mine.

All right, I'll bring the sunshine to your life.
My love will melt your heart tonight -
You'll feel alive.
Sometime we'll be the angels in the sky,
And I will hold your hand in mine -
You will be mine.

Oh I've died eight times and this is it,
You're my last chance, babe, that I will get.
I know in time you will be mine.
Oh I know I've got a lot this day,
But I know I can't let you escape.
I know in time you will be mine.

You make me feel alive,
Now you are in my life,
I want you by my side,
I know in time...
I feel I loose my mind,
Finally you are mine,
I want you by my side,
I know in time.

You make me feel alive,
Now you are in my life,
I know in time
You will be mine.
I feel I loose my mind,
Finally you are mine,
I know in time
You will be mine.
