Honey

Thomas Dybdahl

Funny how things work out We all have reason to sometimes die When it takes a lifetime to really work things out Ohh honey You're the light when darkness takes me You're the good when evil breakes me You're the love that won't forsake me Money is allways a fight Cause it takes a lifetime to really get it right But in the i main time i spend the night Ooh honey You're the light when darkness takes me You're the love that won't forsake me
