

No One Would Ever Know

Thomas Dybdahl

I'll bide my time waiting
For the perfect moment
And all I need
Is a quiet little corner and a conversation

No one would ever know
Everyone tells me so
No one would ever know

I want you, I wanna touch you
And feel your skin
Do you want me, 'cause I could stay
If you need some company?

No one would ever know
Everyone tells me so
No one would ever know
Everyone tells me so
