

Blueberry Queen

Thomas Giles

Your skin so soft, wish I could wear it all day.
Your heart so big, wish I could pump it through my veins.
Out those windows is where I should be
Sippin tea with my, my blueberry queen.
Your eyes put sun on this pillow face.
Your smile is the breeze running through my greys.
Out those windows is where I should be
Sippin tea with my, my blueberry queen.
I love my blueberry queen.
