

The dark wind sent it to me
the smell of open flame Can't be real Sounds of foreign instruction sliding into my mind eyes spring open Nose is burning, mind is racing must move fast so I don't lose
the two things I love more than life
Nose is burning, mind is racing
must move fast so I don't lose
the two things I love more than life
I will not be swept away, this will not end today
Im still here for you Across the ocean frightened just want to ease my thoughts Hear the conform tone Why do I put us through this?
will never leave my mind Tears spring open
Nose is burning, mind is racing
must move fast so I dont lose
the two things I love more than life
I will not be swept away, this will not end today
I'm still here for you
I will not be swept away, this will not end today
I'm still here for you
When the day comes My love will live on
