

Sweetheart

Thomas Rhett

Sweetheart

God could've never made two
Nobody quite like you

Woke up this morning to your sleepy smile
I realized I haven't told you in a while
That you're my life, you're my dream
You're the reason for every song I sing
You're my rock, you're my world
You're my always and forever girl

Sweetheart

God could've never made two
Nobody quite like you
Woah, sweetheart
One kiss and I come unglued
You are the reason I fall to pieces
Cause you're all that I adore
You're the one my heart beats for
And I can't believe you gave your sweet heart to me

Yeah, you're sweet like chocolate, hot like sriracha
Yeah girl you got me right in your back pocket
You're smooth like whiskey, fine like wine
I love how you're making my blood sugar rise

My sweetheart

God could've never made two
Nobody quite like you
Woah, sweetheart
One kiss and I come unglued
You are the reason I fall to pieces
Cause you're all that I adore
You're the one my heart beats for
And I can't believe you gave your sweet heart to me

When the world gets cold
On those sleepless nights
Oh, girl you should know
That you will always be mine

Sweetheart

God could've never made two
Nobody quite like you
Woah, sweetheart
One kiss and I come unglued
You are the reason I fall to pieces
Cause you're all that I adore
You're the one my heart beats for
And I can't believe you gave your sweet heart to me
Ooh, yeah
You gave your sweet heart to me
Ooh, yeah
You gave your sweet heart to me
Oh, please gave your sweet heart to me
