Let's Fight

Thompson Square

Baby, you and me been getting along for way too long Life's been a bed of roses and sweet, sweet song I know I should not complain, this is gonna sound insane, but

Let's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff Maybe call each other names Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back And I'll take all the blame

Let's scream, let's shout Make up, make out Baby, just for tonight Let's fight

You might think that I might think you've lost your mind A love like the one we've got is so hard to find But I miss those crazy nights too I tend to agree with you

Let's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff Maybe call each other names Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back And I'll take all the blame

Let's scream, let's shout Make up, make out Baby, just for tonight Let's fight, baby let's fight

Don't wanna do what we always do Five o'clock dinner, six o'clock news Baby, roll up your sleeves, and put up your dukes

Let's fight
Baby, let's fight
(Baby, let's fight)

Let's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff Maybe call each other names Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back And I'll take all the blame

Let's scream, let's shout Make up, make out Baby, just for tonight Let's fight

Baby, let's fight
(Scream and shout make up, make out)
Baby, let's fight
(Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back)
Baby, let's fight
