Thompson Twins

Take my hand
Rob me for a while of my sight
Don't let me stand
Here alone underneath the red light
Oh touch my face
Feel the fascination as love grows
Your embrace eases the pain that only Tokyo knows
Where where you when I was cold
And all the world was out to get me

Tokyo
Why can't I ever say no
Tokyo

Tokyo
Why can't I ever say no
Tokyo

Sense the chill
Of silent nights on my skin
Feel the thrill
As these four walls just cave in
Taste the rain
Splashes down on my roof
Seek in vain
For you will never know the real truth
This human heart beats much too fast
For comfort or for love in Tokyo

Tokyo
Why can't I ever say no
Tokyo
