

So Far So Good

Thornley

I feel a little bit left of center but then again we've all been there before Every time I see a lost cause coming it's nothing less, nothing more Every time I get lost in paradise
I find a way to screw it up somehow It's not the way it's supposed to be but it'll do for now
When you're right, you're right
Everything else in my life just might be wrong
You're wrong all the time
So far so good 'cause no one knows I'm faking
I wish I could show you the toll it's taking Sometimes I live as if there's no tomorrow
So far so good
I better find a way to cross my fingers half the luck'll get me twice as far I'm sick and tired of coming up for air it shouldn't be this hard Every little bit'll help I wonder if it's enough or did I cross the line
The kitchen counter is a bad reminder of a better time
Everything else in my life just might be wrong
You're wrong all the time
So far so good 'cause no one knows I'm faking
I wish I could show you the toll it's taking
Sometimes I live as if there's no tomorrow
So far so good
When you're right
Everything else you messed up just might be wrong
You're wrong all the time
So far so good 'cause no one knows I'm faking
I wish I could show you the toll it's taking
Sometimes I live as if there's no tomorrow
So far so good
