

A Secret

Those Poor Bastards

I've got a secret, I'm a gonna tell you
Put your ear to my mouth bone
Everybody better leave the room now
Strangers strangers, no more strangers

I've got a secret,
I'm a gonna tell you
I've got a secret,
It's a gonna change you

Everybody likes the sound of my banjo
Have yourself a seat and I'll entertain you
Don't get anxious there's no hurry
You're safe here darling don't you worry

I've got a secret,
I'm a gonna tell you
I've got a secret,
It's a gonna change you

Once I read the entire Bible
I know things that would impress you
Put on this dress so nice and short gal,
Showing off the top of your ankle

I've got a secret,
I'm a gonna tell you
I've got a secret,
It's a gonna change you
