

Among The Pines

Those Poor Bastards

She lost her away among the pines they haven't found her to this day the sheriff says they have no leads I wake up sweating every night

I heard her scream, I heard her beg but I didn't get up from my bed what would they think if they knew I was a coward like they said

I'll never tell I saw the man it was my cousin Billy Greenburg and I know the spot where her body lies but it will remain there undisturbed
