Power from Hell (Onslaught cover)

Thou Art Lord

The Gates of Hell have opened wide with deadly speed the metal it strikes

A fork of light rains from the sky

To feed the amps with power supply

Killerwatts to be unleashed we'll show no mercy, bring you to your knees

Hit the switch the power's free it'll blow your ears & make you mutha's scream

(Chorus)

Onslaught...Power from Hell

Power, power, power from Hell

With the wrath of Satan in our minds we take the stage to play for our lives

When the power racks hit overdrive the banging heads they look toward the sky

Thrashing metal savage screams yeah this is hell it's not just a dream

Hammers pound at breakneck speed to crush the souls of those wh o disbelieve
