

The Royal Invocation Of Apophis

Thou Art Lord

Great Dragon, I call You forth
Downbreaker of thought and form
Come to Me in power and clothe Me up
With the Darkness of Eternity lift Me up
Let the shroud of Tiamat descend upon Me
That I shall walk among the stars
And men will fear My presence
Cast this mantle of flesh
Into the mould of the of the Serpent race
Trace the angle web and enter the gulf
By the formula of Immortality
The eagle's eye dims! Let Yours be opened
Brother and companion of Night
Unlock Your secrets
I have spoken the mighty Words of Your lore
The Beast of Night foretells Your Coming
I call Your forth
