

Broken Wing

Thousand Foot Krutch

Here comes an opening, she's gotta broken wing, if you can feel the sting, take care of everything, if she can make a scene, i'll show you what i mean, she pack a loaded gun, set fire to anyone, knows how to make 'em run, she's down on sixth stree t, shes's goin sixty, she'll show you how to breathe.

i dont want to see, i dont want to be, i dont wanna be anyone, anymore i dont want to fake, i dont want to break, i dont wanna say anything, anymore, everyti me you walk away, i wish you'd stay, instead of pushing further away, everytime i hear you say i just need one, to take this pain away

you're a broken wing, not a broken thing, you can heal in time, if you try, it'll be okay, you can walk away, sweet julia...
