In My Room

Thousand Foot Krutch

They say that you created all
My voice my sounds so small
And between heavens walls
What they set you in my mind

And they say that your love has no end
And that you can heal the past
With just one touch of your hand
Doesn't matter if I was to blame

I've been trying to erase myself
But trying to the someone else
They say there's no hope for me
I guess this must be hell

They make me feel so empty
Their words they cut like knives
You tell me to forgive them
But not sure I'll survive

I'm not sure this is a good time
Or even if your home
It's a long long way from your throne

But can you meet me in my room
A place where I feel safe
Don't have to run away
And I can just be me

Can you meet me in my room
A place where I feel strong
A place where I belong
And I can call my own

I wait for you...

They say you're always there, you never leave
Even when we don't believe
And that sounds like love to me
I know I couldn't do the same

And they said that you can see my heart
Then you already know I'm falling apart
That's why I hide here in a dark
So no one has to see my pain

I've never prayed so can we just talk
Don't wanna put you on the spot
But can you bring the keys to my heart
And help me find a way

Make me feel so empty
The words they cut like knives
You tell me to forgive them
But not sure I'll survive

I'm not sure this is a good time

Or even if your home
It's a long long way from your throne

But can you meet me in my room
A place where I feel safe
Don't have to run away
And I can just be me

Can you meet me in my room
A place where I feel strong
A place where I belong
And I can call my own

I want you meet me
Meet me in my room
Where there's no one else
I left but you

I've been waiting for so long to meet you
I've been waiting...

I want you meet me
Meet me in my room
And there's no one else
I left but you

I've been waiting for so long to meet you
I've been waiting...

In my room... Why won't you meet me
Why won't you meet me in my room
I'm all alone, and I've been waiting...
