

Searchlight

Thousand Foot Krutch

I'm tired of trying,
I guess I'll walk instead of flying.
These wings are broken,
From carrying my mind.
I'm tired of lying,
Cause theres nothing I can do.
I need a searchlight,
To bring me back to you.

Send me a searchlight
Up far in the sky to light my way
I need a searchlight
To bring me back to you, tonight

My arms are tired,
And theres no one else around.
I need a savior,
Or this ships going down.
I'll breath my last breath,
It's gonna take a miracle this time.
But I still believe you there on my darkest nights.

Send me a searchlight
Up far in the sky to light my way
I need a searchlight
To bring me back to you, tonight

Send me a searchlight
Up far in the sky to light my way
I need a searchlight
To bring me back to you,
And to let me know I'm alright.

I feel lost inside this fog,
I need your light to carry on.
I've got nothing left to hide,
I hope you want whats left behind.

Send me a searchlight
Up far in the sky to light my way
I need a searchlight
To bring me back to you, tonight

I need a searchlight
I need a searchlight
I need a searchlight

To bring me back to you
And to let me know that I'm alright.

I need a searchlight
I need a searchlight
I need a searchlight

To bring me back to you
And to let me know that I'm alright.
