

A New Beginning

Threat Signal

Face down on the way to the end
And I'm fighting to breathe
Don't bury me
Consume our lives
Control our minds
I've taken the strength that was left behind

I'm pulling deeper from within
The answer bleeding through my skin
Serenity dies

If I could breathe again
I'd choose a new beginning

Salvation
Will save us all
The lacerations will heal
Rise beyond
The threshold
Surpass all obstruction
We will survive

I'm pulling deeper from within
The answer bleeding through my skin
Serenity dies

If I could breathe again
I'd choose a new beginning

I'm falling away
From this artificial life

Omit treason
Cast upon thee
My revelation
Beginning a new life
