

As I Destruct

Threat Signal

I embrace this pitiful race
Reaching out to a world of disgrace
I'm willing to sacrifice
Implosion of emotion never reaching prime

Burning inside the mind
All these thoughts must unwind
Stirring close to the edge
Never reaching the end

I am falling down
Forever in spite over you
Save me as I fall
As I destruct

It's not to late
To design and reveal a notion
It's not to late
To indulge and find a solution

My silence
Won't heal the damage inside me
Fallen from grace
I refuse to die with the answers

Time to go
Into the void
To the unknown
Time to go
Today will mark evolution

When all is lost
I'll never end
Striving to live again

When all is lost
I'll never end
Striving to live again

Live again
Striving to live again
