As I Destruct

Threat Signal

I embrace this pitiful race Reaching out to a world of disgrace I'm willing to sacrifice Implosion of emotion never reaching prime

Burning inside the mind All these thoughts must unwind Stirring close to the edge Never reaching the end

I am falling down Forever in spite over you Save me as I fall As I destruct

It's not to late To design and reveal a notion It's not to late To indulge and find a solution

My silence Won't heal the damage inside me Fallen from grace I refuse to die with the answers

Time to go Into the void To the unknown Time to go Today will mark evolution

When all is lost I'll never end Striving to live again

When all is lost I'll never end Striving to live again

Live again Striving to live again
