

Betrayal

Threat Signal

The sky begins to fall
Rain upon my fave
But I feel nothing at all

I've been numb for many days
Lifeless to the world
My heart has led me astray
Has led me astray

Life has betrayed me one last time
I've drawn the line

Every night I bleed alone
Fallen from light
I must find my way back home

Awaken from this misery
Find the strength within
Truth inside will set me free
Will set me free

Life has betrayed me one last time
I've drawn the line
