Escape From Reality

Threat Signal

I'm reaching deeper inside myself again To find the words to use If I had one more chance I would realize This isn't fair to you

I swear there's a better life

You are the answer to all my pain Escape from my prison Now I can breathe for another day Escape from reality

You see the regret in my eyes Feel my sincerity hear my cries I will not sacrifice my life For this uncertainty I will choose what's right, what's mine

You are the answer to all my pain Escape from my prison Now I can breathe for another day Escape from reality

Surrender my apology Even though we'll never be the same again I have no reason left to say Don't ever doubt that I am here to stay
