

One Last Breath

Threat Signal

Burn the bridges of the empire
The kingdom will fall
Infaction of democracy
Bleed the weak and sew the eyes
Of them all

My solace will not bring us down
Generations fall to the ground
The absence
The sorrow
Ensnare
Mind-fucking the truth

Feel so far away
It's burning on the inside
I am so cold
One last breath

Count the victims as they die,
Embed the thought in your mind
Regression of peace for all life
Man
The power
The drive
Will decide

The violence will drag us down
As blood spills we fall to the ground
This world is not a slave
We must embrace

Feel so far away
It's burning on the inside
I am so cold
One last breath

It's time to rise

Everyday more people die
From mindless acts of violence
Man will kill us all
He will kill us all

Feel so far away
It's burning on the inside
I am so cold
One last breath

One last breath
