

Seeing Red

Threat Signal

Blind the eyes of humanity
Twisting the minds of this race
Living disgrace
Abomination driving everyone towards the hate

I am justified
To unite with my own kind
Not to follow
And not to prejudge
I decide who is real
From what's revealed
This shattered past
Can't conceal

For all the tears I've shed
This one for you is red
It's red

What will it take
To repent your mistakes
This war will be won
We've only just begun

The blood has been shed and the rows upon rows of the dead are unknown
The victims who lie deep beneath us at peace are not forgotten

For all the tears I've shed
This one for you is red
It's so unreal

For all the tears
The tears I've shed
I'm bleeding and so should you

For all the tears
The tears I've shed
I'm bleeding and so should you
