

Severed

Threat Signal

Stare down this road you travel on is this what you've dreamed your life would always be I choose to learn from my mistakes decide my own fate not follow your disgrace

It's time you all take your own advice and stop pointing fingers
And as you all turn your back on me I will prove what I'm made
of

Take back the bullshit that you've said
You're fooling no one but yourself
I know the answer lies inside
But now I have to say goodbye

And now I have to say goodbye Say goodbye

And now I'm moving on
And now I'm moving strong
And now I'm moving on

It's time you all take your own advice and stop pointing fingers

I will prove what I'm made of Don't turn your back on me
