

Car Crash

Three Days Grace

I came along for the ride
You're wicked with the clutch
Happened so fast and it hurt so much
You're a car crash, and i can't look away

I should've known by now
I'm still not afraid
I'll do it to myself, "no" it's what I never what I say
You're a car crash, and i can't look away

All I see is shattered glass and red lights passing, my life flashing
Heading for the same disaster, faster and faster and faster
I couldn't stop at the red light
Stop at the red light
I couldn't stop at the red light
You're a car crash, and I can't look away

I came along for the ride
You're wicked with the clutch
Happened so fast and it hurt so much
You're a car crash, and i can't look away
And all I see is shattered glass and red lights passing, my life flashing
Heading for the same disaster, faster and faster and faster

I couldn't stop at the red light
The red light
Stop at the red light
I couldn't stop at the red light
You're just like a car crash, and i can't look away
From the headlights, the red lights
Stop at the red light
I couldn't stop at the red light
You're just like a car crash, and i can't look away
(let's go for a ride)
And all I see is shattered glass and red lights passing
(let's go for a ride)
Heading for the same disaster, faster and faster and faster

I couldn't stop at the red light
The red light
Stop at the red light
I couldn't stop at the red light
You're just like a car crash, and i can't look away
From the headlights, the red lights
Stop at the red light
I couldn't stop at the red light
You're just like a car crash
Like a car crash and i can't look away.
