

Down

Three Years Hollow

I spent some time just looking away
And I thought it might have been a better day
But I'm watching you
I'm missing you
And all this time keeps passing away
And another day slowly fades away
I'm watching you
I'm missing you

You tell me you're fine and better off alone
They tell me you're down on your knees sucking someone
Tell me you're fine and better off alone
But I know that you're down on your knees really sucking now

I wanted out and I wanted away
And I looked out and wished you away
As I'm watching you
I'm missing you
And all this time keeps passing away
And my little life slowly fades away
As I'm watching you
Missing you

You tell me you're fine and better off alone
They tell me you're down on your knees sucking someone
Tell me you're fine and better off alone
But I know that you're down on your knees really sucking now
