

Run Away

Three Years Hollow

I'm so far away.
I tried to pick myself up off the floor again.
Was so blind, I thought you were my friend.
Pick up yourself and take another look around.
They're running as fast as they can.
Calm yourself, take a breathe instead of breaking down.
Don't lose your way.

Run away from the pain you hide.
cause there's another way to take you down.
Step up and take all the things you hide.
There's another way...
Another way...

Do you really think I'll find it?
I've walked this road so long.
If this is my past, when does it end?
Pick up yourself and take another look around.
They're running as fast as they can.
Make me or break me,
Alone I'll try to find my way.

Run away from the pain you hide.
cause there's another way to take you down.
Step up and take all the things you hide.
There's another way...
Another way...

Did you want me to find myself alone again?
