

Best Friend

Throne

look at the clouds defend my eyes, I can't see through them caught in a mist now for some time, hard to get through it
your faith in me is like the sun, somehow it lights the
way
and I'm praying... this will make us stronger, hope this lasts much longer dark will make this lighter black as the whitest boldfaced lie, could not resist it nobody saw how hard you cried, and tried to get through

and I'm praying...
you were right, and now I drown from internal bleeding you were right, and now I drown, it's eternal
