

Freakin Out

Throne

I am strong inside and out, but when things go wrong my insides come out every once in a while things get like this, every once in a while...

((chorus))

(laying face up) everything is spinning around
(when you stand up) nothing wants to stay down
(would you give up) I dont know man, but I know I'm
freakin' out
hold me down when this comes back,

I'm giving myself a heart attack kiss myself goodbye until i learn to fight, kiss myself goodbye because...

((chorus))

(laying face up) everything is spinning around
(when you stand up) nothing wants to stay down
(would you give up) I dont know man, but I know I'm
freakin' out

((bridge))

can't this all come together, before it falls apart

((end chorus))
