

Bloodshot Eyes

Throw The Fight

Yeah

You stopped believing

With bloodshot eyes
You see right through me
So paranoid
I try to end my life

Remember when you
Laid in my arms were bleeding
For just another dance now it's my fault
And it's my fault
I'm bleeding

Bury me before my heart stops beating
Close your eyes
And tell me why this is breaking
My whole heart is torn into pieces
Just because
You stopped believing

We're out of time
There's no excuses
I take the blame
It won't just fade away

Until my last breath
And I am laying with you
I will wear this burden in my heart
My heart (I'll keep you)

Bury me before my heart stops beating
Close your eyes
And tell me why this is breaking
My whole heart is torn into pieces
Just because
You stopped believing

Go!

You spread your lies
My back's against the wall
Screaming out
You've got me where you want
Spread your lies
My back's against the wall
Screaming out
You've got me where you want me
(Where you want me)

Bury me before my heart stops beating
Close your eyes
And tell me why this is breaking
My whole heart is torn into pieces
Just because
You stopped believing
