

Not so Hollywood

Throw The Fight

You've got your fake smiles and a million dollar tan six cars and a head full of nothing black shades, needle in your arm Daddies Porsche and a diamond you can choke on

Hanging out with your head in the clouds
Lame friends and a life in The Hills
We're thrilled with a pocket full of bills cuz that's so Hollywood, so Hollywood

Everybody wants to be a star
Baby you can fake it

Give him the spotlight (whoa)
Green as the limelight (whoa)
Your eyes are on the prize
Cuz that's so Hollywood
Not So Hollywood

You've got your fast girls, money on your mind
Cheap thrills and a breakfast full of white lines
You stay high just to pass the time
That's so Hollywood, so Hollywood

You scream it out but we really don't care
You've got the look but it's nothing that I wear There's no point when you stop and stare
cuz that's so Hollywood, so Hollywood

Everybody wants to live so large
Maybe you can fake it

Give him the spotlight (whoa)
Green as the limelight (whoa)
Your eyes are on the prize
Cuz that's so Hollywood
Not So Hollywood

Give him the spotlight (whoa)
Green as the limelight (whoa)
Too lit to make it, too high to care
Cuz that's so Hollywood
Not So Hollywood

We're never gonna be like you
We're never gonna be misused
We're not so Hollywood, so Hollywood
