

Borrowed Time

Throwdown

I'll carry out my will, I'll carry out my judgment for your filth
I'll carry out my will and watch them carry you away
Justice betrays you
Judgment awaits you in your grave
You're living on borrowed time now, waiting for the hammer to fall

I carried out my will, I carried out my judgment for your filth
I carried out my will and now I carry out my days... in my cell
Justice betrays you
Judgment awaits me in hell
I'm living on borrowed time now, waiting for the hammer to fall
