

Hardened By Consequence

Throwdown

Never again... inferior, a casualty of lesser men Killing within... the part of me that died in vain, born again aw ash in flames

Now hardened by consequence
Tempered alone, flesh and stone
Hardened by consequence
Adversity has made me what I am

The flood, it took you from me... I wept for the past to return
But never again...

Hardened by consequence
Tempered alone, flesh and stone
Hardened by consequence
Integrity has made me what I am
