

Shut You Down

Throwdown

Separate the true from trend and the snakes from friends
We always learn the hard way
Only fakes, running their mouths about loyalty
But now they got nothing to say to me
Just a line I love my friends and I love my life
Well there's the truth punk
Only lies, your friends are names and your life's a game
I just call it how I see it Take your time cus I took mine and while I saw this through You'll get what's coming to you
High and dry is where you left me
Now I'll spit the truth, I said I'll spit the truth in your eye s
It comes to this, purest of tests, no escaping judgment
I'm not gonna shut you down, I'll let you do it yourself
I won't put you in the ground, you gotta learn what it means to fail
Separate the true from trend and the snakes from friends
You're gonna learn the hard way
Only fakes, running your mouth about loyalty
But now you got nothing to say
Just a taste of what it's really about
Honor and owning up, don't be a coward
Face to face is where you judge me
Now I'm calling you out, I said I'm calling you out right now
I'll just be there with my back turned while you burn in hell
I'm not gonna shut you down
