

Vendetta

Throwdown

This is a vendetta
Long road, we've treaded on since day one
Hard times, we swore we would overcome
Without this where the hell would we be... dead inside
Enemies, you cannot kill what will not die
This is war
This is pure hostility
This is vengeance
This is all that's driving me
This is a vendetta
Dead world, we're out of step with liars' times
Enemies, we swore we would fight the line
This is all that drives us to survive, the life we breathe
Power, strength of the world inside me
This is war
This is pure hostility
This is vengeance
This is our vendetta against the world
