

Without Weakness

Throwdown

Grinding down beneath the weight of fear and insecurity
Coveting enslavement, what a vile travesty

Instead, I live without weakness
Die without fear
Live without weakness
Die without fear

A predatory species salivating for my mortal end
War is what you want, obliteration's what you'll fucking get

I live without weakness
Die without fear
Live without weakness
Die without fear or regret

You're shallow, scared and overrated
I'm living without fear of death
Your life reeks of desperation
When can we hope to see it end?
Where does it end?

Live without weakness
Die without fear
Live without weakness
Die without fear or regret
