Throwing Muses

Pull your lover 'round by the nose...

You'll never get to see how the garden grows
But if you go forth so...

You can't stop the smell of roses

Eighteen things at once

You spread yourself so thin

You could not find a basket

To put all your eggs in

Mikey row the boat ashore

If you walk next to the ...

You got a lose a little of something

Jak of all trades and a master of none
How can a person get anything done?
You can fool yourself, you can fool anyone
Jak jak jak jak jak jak jak
Jak of all trades and a master of none
How can a person get anything done?
You can fool yourself, you can fool anyone
Jak jak jak jak jak jak jak
Jak of all trades
Jak of all trades
Jak of all trades
