

Aeon of Darkness

Thulcandra

When the storms have gathered at the edge of time
The sun turns crimson red on a blood-like sky
As the stars are falling into the void
This is the cosmic death, the dawn of eternal night

Follow me, come with me deep into the night
This is the ultimate beginning of the end
I am the alpha, the omega
The unhallowed unconstructor of divine creation

Blood! Blood!
Your world will down in blood and fire in this ultimate demise
Burn! So burn!
In the eternal flames of darkness, earth has reached its final destiny

When all light has fainted into inanity
God's creation and "glory" is forgotten in space and time
When the sun has swallowed all worthless "life"
Cleansed is this universe
Aon of darkness
