

Night Eternal

Thulcandra

I live in the eternal, the eternal night
Now all my visions are only dark and bleak
No life is dwelling in my sight
Is this the existence, I have seeked?

Night, night eternal, forever more

Infernal demons, there's only pain
My mind is burning, am I insane?
Black angels rising, my life is gone
Dark shadows shroud me, my soul is lost

Suicide was the key
For my demise and sorrow for all eternity
I took my life now I'm forsaken
Inside this realm of pain and misery
